IMMIGRATION.

An Omaha Editor Opposes Changes in the Law.

THINKS THERE IS LAW ENOUGH NOW.

Kennedy's Stealings Said to Be $15,000—The American Hog—The Rio Grande Road.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—A hearing was given this morning by the Committees of the House and Senate on immigration and naturalization, sitting jointly, to persons opposed to changes in the laws on those subjects. Edward Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, said he represented a number of German and other societies in the West. He believed the present laws sufficient for all practical purposes to keep out undesirable classes. All that was needed was a more rigid administration of the laws and closer inspection at ports of entry. Other speeches followed to the same effect.

KENNEDY'S CONFESSION.

His Shortage Somewhere Between $12,000 and $15,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—James S. Kennedy Jr., the defaulting foreign money order clerk in the San Francisco post office, who was arrested last evening, was taken before a United States Commissioner this morning and his bonds placed at $10,000. No date was set for his examination. The amount of his peculations is not known yet, although a close examination of his accounts is being made today. His books show a shortage of 608 foreign money orders, and it is said Kennedy has confessed to United States Marshal Franks that he was short $12,000 or $15,000.

THE AMERICAN HOG.

Both Houses of Congress Concerned About Him.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In the Senate Cockrell presented a protest of the Porkpackers' Association of St. Louis against the bill for the inspection of meats, declaring the bill unnecessary, and dangerous to the stock-raising and curing interests, and more injurious even than the German and French prohibition. Referred.

In the House—Henderson of Iowa, presented a resolution of the general assembly of Iowa, urging legislation against the adulteration of lard. Referred.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Compton contested election case, and was addressed by Compton, the sitting member.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

Lighthouses and Life Saving Stations—The Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In the Senate the bill appropriating $50,000 for a lighthouse and fog signal at the mouth of the Coquille river on the Pacific ocean was reported and placed on the calendar.

The Senate Committee on Commerce ordered favorable reports upon the bill to establish life saving stations near the mouth of the Rogue river, Port Orford and Coos Bay, Oregon.

Secretary Proctor today transmitted to the house a report from Colonel Comstock, President of the Mississippi River Commission, in regard to the flood and the state of the river. He says he has all the money needed, unless an additional rise occurs. He says the river is higher than ever before known, and says that a further rise would cause wide-spread disaster. So far there is little danger to life.

THE PACIFIC RAILROADS.

The Money Now in the Sinking Fund of Both Roads.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In response to a resolution the Secretary of the Treasury has transmitted to the House a statement that there is in the United States Treasury for the Sinking Fund of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific, first mortgage bonds as follows: Union Pacific, $3,515,000; Central Pacific, $920,000.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY.

THE BLOCKADE RAISED.

The Denver and Rio Grande is Clear of Snow.

DENVER, March 20.—The snow blockade over the southern branch of the Rio Grande road over the Cumbres range, five hundred miles south of Denver, is raised and all trains are on time. It is anticipated that no further trouble will be experienced from snow this season. The main line of the road between here and Salt Lake City, over which the California traffic passes, has not been bothered with snow for a single day this season.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Judge O'Brien of the Supreme court today heard the application of the sugar trust for leave, under the Judge's recent decision, to declare a dividend of 2½ per cent. on fifty million dollars of the trust certificates. He will decide the matter tomorrow.

CONDEMNED.

Indianapolis Buildings To Be Torn Down.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 20.—It has been decided that the Wasson and Sloan blocks, adjoining the Bowen & Merrill building, are unsafe and must be torn down. The search for Woodruff's body was not renewed, owing to the danger from the standing ruins. The Mayor ordered an inspection of all shaky buildings and the tearing down of all unsafe ones.

EIGHT HOUR MOVEMENT.

The Results of the Conference Held in New York.

Most of the Trades Feel That They Will Be Able to Enforce Their Demands.

PITTSBURG, March 20.—The result of the conference of the Executive Council of the Federation of Labor in New York on Saturday has just been made public. Vice President Martin says that no trade will be ordered to demand an eight hour law nor strike to enforce the demand. It is left entirely optional with each trade, and that they will do so is shown by replies sent to the federation from almost all the trades saying that they desired and were able to win eight hours. In the Pittsburg and Wheeling districts the carpenters will first ask a conference with the builders and if refused will demand it. The New York and Boston stone masons will probably make the first break in those cities to be followed by other strong organizations.

THE M'CALLA INQUIRY.

The Defendant Testifies in His Own Behalf.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The McCalla hearing reached a somewhat interesting stage today. McCalla was called as a witness to testify in answer to the complaint made by Ensign Kline. The cross-examination of McCalla was conducted by Lieutenant Werlick. The Commander evidently did not like his cross-examination by an inferior officer. The scene was quite unusual. McCalla testified that he found Kline asleep while supposedly on duty, and therefore ordered him, together with the quartermaster and orderly, under arrest. Ensign Kline then took the witness stand and directly contradicted McCalla's statements. Kline said that McCalla was confused and gave many contradictory orders. Counsel for McCalla, at the opening of the proceedings, objected to the hearing of Kline's complaint, because the same matter is pending before the Secretary of the Navy, but was overruled. The Court of Inquiry has defined its scope as follows: The Court considers it right to report its conclusions as to facts established by the evidence, but not an opinion as to whether future judicial action should be had.

Gold Is Cheaper.

BUENOS AYRES, March 20.—The premium on gold has declined to 158.

In no Oakland paper save THE TRIBUNE is the Associated Press report printed.

THE BOERS

Are Indignant at the Insults to Their Flag,

AND ARE READY TO RISE IN A BODY.

The Situation in Germany—Bismarck Preparing to Move—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, March 20.—Advices from Pretoria, the capital of the Transvaal republic, state that the Boers have presented an address to President Kruger declaring that they are ready to rise in a body to avenge the insults recently offered their flag at Johannesburg. Kruger said the affair was nothing but a disturbance by drunken rowdies. The bulk of the residents of the Transvaal were friendly to Republican Government.

THE GERMAN SITUATION.

The Emperor and Von Waldersee—A Russian View.

NEW YORK, March 20.—A private cable from London brings a sensational story to account for the rupture between Emperor William and Count von Waldersee. The story is that the Emperor proposed to Waldersee the convocation of an international congress to act on the proposition by the Kaiser to abolish standing armies and allowing only the maintenance by each country of a certain small force, limited in proportion to the population, as a pledge of good faith, and Waldersee emphatically objected.

BERLIN, March 20.—According to the Tagblatt, many changes will be inaugurated by Caprivi.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—The Novosti today publishes another article, and declares the solitary support of the edifice of European peace has crumbled.

Bismarck Will Move Out.

MARCH 20.—Bismarck has made arrangements to vacate the palace of the Chancellor at at an early date.

A WINNING STRIKE.

English Coal Mine Owners Concede the Demands.

Minister Adams on Vacation.

LONDON, March 20.—Adams, the American Minister to Brazil, on his way to the United States on leave of absence, has arrived at Southampton from Rio Janeiro.

THE TORIES CONFER.

Salisbury's Joke at the Expense of the United States.

He Denies That There is Any Likelihood of a Dissolution of Parliament This Year.

LONDON, March 20.—The conference of conservative members of Parliament was held at the Carlton club today. Lord Salisbury addressed the meeting, urging the members to pay close attention to their parliamentary duties, regardless of personal inconvenience in order to thwart the obstructive opposition. He spoke of the measures which the Government wanted to push through. Among them was the Land Purchase bill. He ridiculed the report that Parliament would soon be dissolved, and declared that the new Irish bill would secure the possession of the landlords of their property. He denied that the Government had any intention whatever of handing Swaziland over to the Boers, and expressed a hope that the difficulty with the United States over the Behring Sea question would be settled soon. "But," he said, "with such a susceptible nation as America, Great Britain cannot negotiate at the top of her voice." (Loud laughter.)

MONEY MATTERS.

Salary Warrants—A Bond Redemption Fund.

As has been stated in THE TRIBUNE, City Treasurer Gilpin has made arrangements with the banks where the public money is stored, to cash the city salary warrants without discount.

With reference to the balance left in the hands of the city at the close of the fiscal year, Auditor Snow comes to the front with a good suggestion that the money be turned into the bond redemption fund. The fact that the money that could be applied for this purpose would average about $75,000 annually, and that during the ten years commencing 1893 the $80,000 8 per cent bonds insured in 1872 could be redeemed, makes the proposition a good one, for it is certainly advisable to get in all the 8 per cents as soon as possible. Mr. Snow has figured out that during the thirty-one years that the $80,000 bonds in question run the interest on them alone amounts to $108,000.

AMONG STRANGERS.

A Lady Who Cannot Give an Account of Herself.

Mrs. Isabella Barker, who says she is a niece of General Grant, was examined before the Lunacy Commissioners this afternoon. The lady has a mania for riding on the trains and refuses to pay her fare. She says she is a widow and recently came to this state from New York. She cannot account for her strange actions and asserts that she has no friends in this State. She told the Commissioners that a conductor owned all the trains, and she would find no trouble in securing passage East. While she has been confined in the jail she has spent nearly all her time in dressing and undressing. She was committed to the asylum.

Necrology.

Mrs. Bradbury, sister-in-law of L. L. Bradbury, of Los Angeles, died last Tuesday evening at her residence, corner of Tenth and Linden streets.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Performances of the Cleveland Minstrel Company.

W. S. Cleveland, who succeeded Haverly as the impresario of large minstrel organizations, has eliminated the old-time "plantation scenes" and farcical after pieces. In the performances now given under his direction no trace remains of the original purpose of the negro minstrel company, to wit, the representation of the real life of the darkeys of the Southern States of this country. The evolution of minstrelsy has brought out a performance consisting of music, humor, dancing and athletics. The negro is not considered, though the blackened faces still show over the costumes of esquires, jesters, and even royalty.

Cleveland's "Magnificent Haverly Minstrels," which will give performances at the Oakland Theater this evening, tomorrow and Saturday evenings, and Saturday afternoon, contains excellent exponents of the four elements of entertainment. Billy Rice and Willis Sweatnam, the veteran comedians, contribute the amusement to the gorgeous first part, and an excellent quartette supplies the music. Dancing in concert and a drill, with a ridiculous musical sketch, occupy an hour, and the performance closes with an exhibition of equilibrism, athletics, and jugglery, by a company of Japanese.

James H. O'Neil will play Monte Cristo at the Oakland Theater for three nights, beginning the 31st inst.

HE WILL GO TO WORK.

Evangelist Rice Liberated From the City Prison

He Promises That He Will Discontinue His Street Exhortations—His Work in Jail.

At 9 o'clock this morning the prison gates that held Evangelist Rice captive were swung open and he walked forth into the beaming sunshine free once more. No winged ambassador from heaven drew back the bars, however, unless Turnkey Quackenbush can be accepted in that role, for he is the one who released the confining bolts. It is quite certain though that he would not have done it had not Dr. McClellan of the Theological College handed over to Police Clerk Moore $7 a few minutes before, for Rice had not yet expiated his sentence by seven days, that term being represented in the eyes of the law at the value of a dollar a day.

An attempt to rescue him had however been made much earlier in the morning, for about 8 o'clock Dr. Bluett called and obtained an audience with Rice, whom he offered to bail out under certain conditions. His terms were that Rice would promise to discontinue preaching on the public thoroughfares, the doctor telling him if he wanted to conduct open air services he should obtain permission to use a vacant lot somewhere about. Rice, however, declined to give the promise, saying that he did not know whether he would preach on the street any more or not.

"Do you think you are doing any good on the streets?" asked the doctor.

"Why, yes," responded Rice, in a sanctimonious tone. "I have converted four souls that I know of, and even here, in prison, I have won some to the Lord."

"Where are 'they?'" asked Jailor Quackenbush, for the "hobos" were chuckling aloud at the evangelist's announcement.

The Codian-locked youth did not point to his recruits, but still protested that he was winning souls for the Lord there, so Dr. Bluett said that if that was the case it would probably be a good idea for him to remain.

Rice hummed a little, but finally said yes to this suggestion, and the doctor then left him to his companions, who proceeded to "josh" him as hobos only can. He evidently decided on thinking over what had occurred, that he had made a mistake in refusing Dr. Bluett's proposition and when, an hour later, similar overtures were made to him by Mr. McClellan he at once accepted them. His new visitor explained that the $7 had been raised among the students of the college, who would not, however, bail him out, unless he promised to stop his street exhortations, for, as they argued, it would only be throwing money away to release him, if he persisted in street preaching, for he would certainly be arrested again. Rice gave the promise, and said, "I guess I'll go to work in the Contra Costa Laundry. I can get a job there."

So he packed his wardrobe in a paper fruit bag, that does service with him for a valise, and walked out of the jail with a beatified smile, heeding not the rude wit of his quondam companions, who whistled, "Chippy get your hair cut," a a valedictory march.

A KIND HUSBAND.

So Says Mrs. Harris of Jacob L. Harris.

Mrs. Minnie Harris, wife of Jacob L. Harris, was this morning granted permission to become a sole trader. She will engage in the clothing business in this city. Mrs. Harris says that her husband is unable to support her and her family by reason of business misfortunes. She avers that he has always been a good, kind and generous husband to her, and that no grounds exist for her demanding a divorce. Mrs. Harris says she will invest the sum of $500, which was given to her by W. W. Jacobs, a relative.

An Unexpected Verdict.

Hugh Sweeney tried very vigorously to explain in the police court this morning that he was justified in his attack on Lee Hong, on a Southern Pacific train, some time ago. The jury did not have much evidence offered them, and when, after being out only five minutes, they rapped on the door, a smile came over the face of defending attorney Chapman, who thought, as did most of the people in the court, that the verdict would be one of acquittal. He was disagreeably surprised, however, for the jurors announced that they had found the defendant guilty, whereupon he was ordered by the court to appear for sentence on Saturday morning.

Want a Good Street.

A petition was this morning filed with the City Clerk asking for the macadamizing of Eleventh avenue, from the southerly line of Twelfth street to the northerly line of Eleventh street. The document is signed by Thomas J. Rogers, John Applegarth, Robert Montgomery, and Orion Lodge of Odd Fellows, representing a total frontage of 380 feet.

Lost and Found.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith were in a state of great alarm yesterday afternoon over the loss of their two year old son, and notified the police of their trouble. The missing toddler was discovered, however, shortly afterwards, he having run off with some other children to play.

IS IT A CINCH?

Rumored Plan of a Schemer to Raise the Wind.

BRIDGES OVER A FREE WATER WAY.

A Promoter Credited With a Desire to Blackmail the City and the Railroad Company.

A rumor was prevalent on the Rialto today which has a decided bearing on affairs appertaining to the city and to railroad construction. The story goes that a San Francisco man named Murray, or Murtry, a "promoter" of all sorts of schemes for raising a financial wind, had approached the owners of property lapped by the northern arm of the San Antonio estuary, and between the Twelfth street dike and the Eighth street bridge, and had been industriously seeking to secure a leasehold interest.

This was innocent enough, except for the fact that the rumor went further and credited Mr. Murray, or Murtry, with having broached a scheme which looked very much like an endeavor to blackmail the city of Oakland and the railroad company. According to the story, which, however, could not be traced to any definite source, though several capitalists and real estate men had heard of it, Murray or Murtry intended to start a lumber yard, and demand a free way to the sea, asserting that he was located on a navigable stream.

In the way of his egress to open water are three bridges, the Eighth street bridge, belonging to the city, the Seventh and First street bridges, belonging to the Southern Pacific Company. In none of these bridges is there a "draw" through which vessels might pass. In the First and the Seventh street bridges there were "draws" for many years, but they were abandoned some time ago.

In case the claim of Murray or Murtry was correct, and the arm of the estuary was a navigable stream, it would be a very expensive matter to build and operate the necessary drawbridges, and the railroad company, with the city, might be very willing to pay a nice little sum to keep the enterprising lumber dealer from pushing his claim.

It is recollected that in the days of old, on the now rotting and dismantled wharf at the eastern end of the Twelfth street dam, Dr. Merritt operated a lumber yard for many years. It was a busy place. Schooners and big barges, laden with lumber, sand, cement, brick, and other building material, sailed or were towed up the estuary and discharged at that wharf. The steamer Vaquero made more or less regular trips to and from the wharf, carrying all sorts of merchandise. It was for the passage of these craft that the draw was maintained in the Seventh street bridge and built in the First street bridge subsequently constructed.

But in time Dr. Merritt moved his lumber yard to the foot of Washington street, and warehouses were built on the wharf. On two separate occasions these warehouses were burned. On the second burning most of the wharf went up with the hay, with which the warehouse was stored. It was never reconstructed. Then the flood gates were placed in the western end of the heaviest part of the dam and the estuary channel, which had formerly touched the wharf, was diverted to the other side of the stream. The construction of the dam caused the arm of the estuary to fill, and now, except at extreme high water, it would hardly float a small sloop.

But the question is, has it ever been declared non-navigable. If not, then Mr. Murray might have some rights if he could obtain a foothold. To ascertain whether there was much possibility of the city's being subjected to a suit, and compelled to maintain a "draw" in the Eighth street bridge, a TRIBUNE representative made some inquiries today.

A. A. Moore, one of the attorneys for the Southern Pacific, could not say that there had been any abandonment by the Federal authorities, of the arm of the estuary, as a waterway. He had not heard of Murray or his schemes.

W. W. Blow was very positive that there had been no abandonment. "You remember we used to have our Mystic Boat Club house on the old Merritt wharf. It was there when the railroad company closed up the drawbridge. We protested, and had quite a pow-wow over it. Dr. Merritt joined with us, and it is my impression that the railroad company paid him a bonus, or made certain concessions to him regarding his Washington street wharf, in consideration of his abandonment of his rights to ingress and egress by the water way."

When spoken to in regard to the rumor about Murray, Mr. Blow's only comment was: "The same old game, the same old game!"

Mayor Glascock said that the matter of that arm of the estuary being a navigable stream had cut quite a figure in the suit growing out of the opposition of General R. W. Kirkham and others to paying the assessment on the Eighth street bridge contract, but he could not recollect just what bearing it had on the decision. Judge Botts and Hon. Henry Vrooman were the principal attorneys in the case, and both are dead. The Mayor said he believed that there was an act of the Legislature relating to the matter, but he could not turn to it. He was of the opinion that there had been no abandonment, and referred to the recent refusal of the Federal authorities to allow the city to make a water park of the inlet.

City Attorney Johnson had not heard of any attempt to cinch the city in the matter, but said emphatically, "If Murray, or anybody else is trying such a game we must see that he doesn't get a foothold." Further than this he said he believed that when it came to the pinch, the city itself was the real owner of all the water front property, and in a position to fight successfully any blackmail scheme.

Thomas Prather and Edson F. Adams were found together. Mr. Adams said that the only owners on the western shore of the inlet between the points named were H. D. Bacon, General Kirkham, the Adams estate, and General Keyes, the latter holding an undivided interest with the estate. As for himself and associates, no offer had been made looking toward the securing of an interest in the property. He did not know who the owners of the eastern shore were, except Dr. Merritt, who he said had exchanged his rights to a waterway for other rights at the foot of Washington street. As to any abandonment of the water way he inclined to the belief that the inlet was still a navigable stream.

"They'll have a very hard time blackmailing the railroad company with such a scheme," said Mr. Prather. "The company has had that tried on them so often that they know just how to act."

Mr. Adams inclined to the view that the rumor had been started by someone dropping a remark about the alluring possibilities of the case.

THE SULLIVAN ROBBERY.

He "Held Up His Hands Like a Gentleman."

Daniel Sullivan, was attacked and robbed, on Friday night, in a shanty on Franklin street, in the manner described exclusively in Saturday's TRIBUNE, gives an interesting account of the affair when he was placed on the witness stand this morning. He said that he had just come into town to look for work and entered, by chance, into conversation with Fred Johnson, who told him that he could show him where he could obtain employment, whereupon Sullivan was so elated that he set up the drinks a couple of times. Then Johnson invited him to his home, stating that he (Johnson) was a married man, and nothing loth, Sullivan went along. They arrived at a building with the blinds drawn down and went inside, where the door was immediately slammed behind them, leaving them in complete darkness. Then a gruff voice ordered Sullivan to hold up his hands.

"Did you do so?" asked Prosecuting Attorney Church.

"Yes, sorr; I lifted them up like a jintleman," responded the witness.

He then continued his narration, telling how his assailants had emptied his pockets of 90 cents, and then turned him out, whereupon he ran at full speed up Broadway, being, as he said, afraid that they would shoot him. He did not stop running until he met Officer Williams, to whom he told his tale, and induced that peace-protector to arrest Johnson.

Attorney Laidlaw conducted the case for the defense and subjected the prosecuting witness to a strict cross examination, bringing out his pedigree and career for the past seventeen years at such length that Justice Henshaw at last put a stop to his eloquence. On the evidence being submitted the court held Johnson to answer with bail fixed at $2000.

Deputy District Attorney Lee Church then asked for an order placing Sullivan under arrest, stating that he was afraid that otherwise the prosecuting witness could not be found when the case came up before the Superior Court, but Justice Henshaw said that he did not care to send a witness to prison, and would not, unless the county would make some arrangement for his board and compensation. Mr. Church said that this would be done. So the court let the matter go over until tomorrow, Sullivan waiting until then at quarters in the City Prison.

UNCHARITABLE IN ALL THINGS.

Niggardly in Their Gifts and Critical of Those Who Are Generous.

The money sent by charitable people to the office of THE TRIBUNE for Mrs. Austin, the blind woman who, with two sick children, was found by a TRIBUNE reporter last Monday destitute and suffering, has been sent to the beneficiary as it was received, and by its means she is supplied for the present with what she most needs. In accordance with the pessimistic habit that obtains in small minds, the propriety of aiding this family has been questioned. Criticisms of deeds of charity need no answer. The plain statement that there were distress and suffering of people unable to work is sufficient reply. The destitute condition of the family was made public in this paper, and relief came just as soon as the article relating it was printed. This family, of course, should not be permanent wards of a few charitable people. The suggestion that Mrs. Austin go to the Home for Adult Blind, that the unfortunate young man, an invalid, who was brutally treated by a crowd of roughs when marching with the Salvation Army, be sent to a hospital, and that the girl find a home in a family is a good one, and should be accepted by Mrs. Austin, unless she has property of her own or friends or relatives willing and able to care for her. But those who have given aid to this family have no apology to make to those less charitable whose purse strings have been drawn tightly together while they criticised the generosity of those whose kindly natures need only to know there is distress to relieve it.

A charitable gentleman this morning sent to THE TRIBUNE $2 50 to be added to the fund for Mrs. Austin's relief.

THEY SEPARATE.

J. G. Brackett and Wife Agree to Disagree.

J. G. Brackett and his wife, Susannah, have come to the conclusion that they can no longer live happily together, and have agreed to separate, and in accordance with this plan an agreement has been recorded whereby a division of the community property is made, and the husband agrees to give his wife $2000 in cash, besides certain real estate. Mrs. Brackett is to be allowed the use of the home for a period of two years, and shall also have the care and custody of the two minor children. For a period of two years Brackett agrees to contribute to the support and maintenance, and shall have an opportunity to see them at such times as he may desire. It is also further agreed that neither party shall in any way disturb the quiet or interfere with the comfort of the other. Mrs. Brackett shall not remove the children from this state without the permission of her husband or in any way interfere with his rights to visit them. If either party shall hereafter desire to secure a divorce he or she shall waive all claims to the property.

The Vagrant Nuisance.

A quintette of unshaven and unshorn individuals faced Justice Henshaw this morning to answer charges of vagrancy, and the first two, on pleading guilty, were sentenced to serve thirty days each in the chain gang. The other three, however, explained that they had been working here, and, on their promising that if they could not obtain further employment here they would leave town, the charges against them were dismissed.

A Bank's Large Claim.

The Nevada Bank of San Francisco has commenced suit against L. P. Drexler and Elizabeth E. White, executor and executrix of the estate of Wilson White, deceased, and George Grant and T. R. Hoffman, to recover $50,770 on two promissory notes given by White in his lifetime. The notes are secured by a mortgage on some lands and 2077 shares of the California Jute Mill stock.

A Lonely Old Man.

Coroner Evers held an inquest on the body of the old man who was struck and killed by a Berkeley train, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The fact was disclosed that his name is Harder, instead of Meyer, and although he had lived in the community for over twelve years, nobody appears to know his given name.

Chauncy Was Idle.

Julia S. Park has sued Chauncy Park to secure a divorce on his failure to provide. She says that for five years he has been idle. The plaintiff asks for the custody of the minor children.

LITERARY LADIES.

Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Boulan Are Letter Writers.

THE THREATS SENT TO MRS. POULSON.

Counter Charges of Conspiracy, Improper Influence, Evil Deeds, and Falsehood.

"I must see the Judge," said Mrs. Lizzie Carter, who desires to be restored to capacity, as she hurriedly walked into Judge Gibson's department of the Superior Court this morning. "I just want to have a little talk with him about my case before it comes on for trial, and tell him to have all reporters excluded from the room." The lady was granted the desired conversation, and when she came out of the Judge's chambers she was approached by a TRIBUNE man and asked to explain the cause of her ill feeling against Dr. Poulson's wife.

"Why, my young friend, don't you know that I am the best friend that Dr. Poulson has in the world. I am going to expose one of the greatest conspiracies to take his life you ever heard of, but you must not say a word about it until I make the expose. You know Dr. Poulson is a spiritualist and it was at a seance that his wife won him. Oh, I know all about it and will expose the whole business. I want to save the doctor; that is the only interest I have in the matter."

"How is it that you are the friend of Dr. Poulson when he publicly stated that the cause of your alleged insanity was due to an unnamable crime?"

"But I then and there denied his statement. He did not know what he was saying, as he was under evil influences. Now, when we get him away from those influences he will be all right, and will see that we are his friends. Dr. Poulson has been a friend of mine for thirteen years. Why, he came to me and wanted me to stop these proceedings and offered me money to leave the State. I told him never in this world would I allow a judgment of insanity to stand against me on the records."

"Do you know Mrs. Boulan?"

"Why, certainly; she is a friend of mine. Before Dr. Poulson married his present wife she was engaged to him. That is why Mrs. Boulan does not like Mrs. Poulson. She thinks the doctor was won by a trick."

About this time Mrs. Poulson, a pretty little woman, entered the courtroom, carrying a bundle of letters which she had received from Mrs. Carter.

"I have been annoyed by that woman for the past two years," said Mrs. Poulson, "and I now propose to have a stop put to this persecution. Why, she is crazy. Mrs. Boulan was never engaged to my husband, and I have letters in my possession from her to prove this statement. Why, they have written all sorts of threatening letters to me, and sometimes I have received as many as three a day. They accuse me of being married three times, and with murdering my husbands and cutting them up in small pieces, and claim to have proof to that effect. Now, any one that would make such statements as that must be crazy."

"Is it true that you first met Dr. Poulson at a seance?"

"No sir. I never met him at a seance, nor did I ever attend a seance with him, but will state that Dr. Poulson is a spiritualist. Now, you have no idea of the vile letters I have received from each of these women and I propose to have them stop it or have them put in a place where they cannot annoy me."

The trial of Mrs. Lizzie Carter, to be restored to capacity, was commenced this afternoon before a jury. Neither Dr. Poulson nor his wife was represented by counsel in the case.

When the matter was submitted the jury deliberated for five minutes and then found Mrs. Carter sane.

No testimony was given in opposition to Mrs. Carter's petition to be restored to capacity.

MOURNING FRIENDS.

The Throng at the Funeral of Miss Kate Kennedy.

The funeral of Miss Kate Kennedy, the well-known educator, occurred today. At 12 o'clock the body was taken from the home of J. M. Cushing, her brother-in-law, 1039 Thirteenth street.

A host of friends, including many prominent people of San Francisco, were present and the floral tokens were profuse. No services were held at the house, and the funeral procession went to Laurel Hill Cemetery in San Francisco, where simple services were held. A large gathering of friends awaited the arrival of the ferry boat bearing the funeral train in San Francisco. The pall bearers were Judge Selden S. Wright, Judge James J. Maguire, W. D. English, Joseph S. Leggett, J. O. Rountree, Colonel Thomas F. Barry, James H. Barry, and J. L. Rey.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first game of the season will be played on April 5th. Delegates from the class will hold a meeting next Tuesday night, to complete arrangements.

THE TRIBUNE receives the entire Associated Press report directly by wire. No other Oakland paper receives this news.

THE MISSING FOUND.

James Donahue Discovered at the County Infirmary.

The mystery of the departure of James Donahue from the Union Hotel, East Oakland, has been explained. The missing man is at the County Hospital. Constable Gallett found the unfortunate man near the railroad station in San Leandro, in an almost dying condition, with a deep gash on his forehead, which he said he received by falling down a steep precipice, which would indicate that he had been traveling through the canyons of the Red woods. Part of his clothing was torn in shreds, while his feet had swollen to unusual size. It is presumed that during his week's absence the unfortunate man traveled a great number of miles, as he remembers passing through various small towns, the names or location of which he fails to remember. Daniel Donahue, his brother, is highly elated over the recovery of the missing man, as he had given up all hopes of ever seeing him again. The two will soon leave for Brooklyn, N. Y., where relatives are living. James is slightly demented. One week ago he disappeared from the hotel and wandered over the country. He does not remember much about his tramp, but says he was given food and shelter wherever he applied.

Clearing the East Oakland Basin.

There is a number of vessels fitting out for Alaska to engage in the salmon fishing business. The Alaska Commercial Company's steamers Bertha, Dora, and St. Paul have been taken to San Francisco and will be overhauled and loaded and will leave for the north in about a week. Business is comparatively brisk along the water front, and every vessel which leaves takes away a number of men, both white and Chinese, for cannery work. Thus far the following sailing vessels are fitting out and will sail in a day or two: Kodiak, Pearl, James A. Borland, Corypheus, Tam O'Shanter, Gatherer, and Percy Edward. Several vessels have already left for Alaska.

A QUESTION WELL ANSWERED.

In What Respect Is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Better Than Any Other?

WE WILL TELL YOU.

It is the only remedy that will liquify the tough, tenacious mucus and render it easy to expectorate.

It is the only remedy that will cause the expulsion of mucus from the air cells of the lungs.

It is the only remedy that will counteract the effect of a severe cold, and greatly mitigate if not effectually cure the cold within one day's time. To do this it must be used as soon as the first symptoms of the cold appear.

It has been clearly shown in thousands of instances that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment.

It is the only remedy that will invariably prevent croup, which makes it one of the most valuable medicines yet discovered in this or any other country.

It is the only remedy that has cured thousands of cases of croup without a single failure.

It is the only remedy that will prevent all dangerous consequences from whooping cough.

It is pleasant and safe to take. There is not the least danger in giving it to children in large and frequent doses, which are always required in cases of croup and sometimes for whooping cough. As a proof of this we refer to Mr. John F. Olson of Des Moines, Iowa, whose eighteen months old boy drank the entire contents of a 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the least injury. Certainly it made the baby vomit very freely, but after taking a nap he would have been glad to have drank another bottle of the remedy, as he liked it. Rowland F. Allen and George J. Hans will represent Brooklyn Parlor, No. 151, at the Grand Parlor, which meets in Chico the last Monday in April.

Order of Foresters.

Owing to the sudden and unexpected death of Dr. R. B. Jacobs, High Sub-Chief Ranger, in San Francisco on Tuesday, Court United States and Court Pacific adjourned on that evening without transacting any business. The deceased was a young man and a splendid speaker.

There is only one court of Ancient Foresters in this city—Court Advocate, No. 7378.

Joseph Nesbitt was initiated into the mysteries of Court Advocate, Wednesday evening.

Five propositions were read at the last meeting of Court Advocate.

The Advocate Baseball Club is getting into practice, and will soon be ready to extend challenges to baseball clubs composed of members of fraternal societies.

There are twenty-five courts of Ancient Foresters in California.

The second session of the Grand Court of Foresters of California will convene in San Francisco Tuesday, May 13, 1890, at 10 A. M., and continue in session until the business is completed. There are thirty-two courts in this State, and about 100 delegates and alternates will be present. There are four courts of the order in this city: United States, Pacific, Harmony, and Shell Mound. Court United States of America has elected E. M. Lipka a delegate and Abe Davis an alternate. Among other business to be transacted will be some important amendments to the constitution and by-laws.

The General Picnic Committee has decided to hold the outing this year in Forest Grove on May 30th.

Catholic Ladies' Aid Society.

The next Grand Council will be held in Santa Cruz in August.

The Grand Board of Directors held their regular monthly meeting last Monday in San Francisco.

Unlike the Young Men's Institute, the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society gives picnics. They are for the charity fund or for some church purpose. They always prove pleasant reunions and are well patronized.

At the last regular meeting of No. 3, it was decided to organize a sewing circle for the purpose of making clothing for the poor of Alameda. They will meet every week at the homes of the different members. Last Wednesday they met at the residence of Mrs. J. Robertson.

Two members of No. 1, of this city, have resolved, during the past year, to renounce the world and devote their lives to God, by serving Him and His creatures, as nuns. The first was Miss Lizzie Poalter, a convert from Presbyterianism, who is now a novice in the novitiate of the Sisters of the Holy Names, in Oakland, and the other is Miss Josie Woodward. This lady's parents were converts to the faith.

No. 1 of this city realized in the neighborhood of $50 from its recent social given in California Hall.

Young Ladies' Institute.

No. 7 is having masses said for its deceased members.

The report for the last quarter from subordinate branches is now due.

No. 1 paid sick benefits to the amount of $488 during the quarter just ended.

Mrs. Mary Gallagher, Vice President of No. 9, who has been sick, is now convalescent.

No. 1 had five initiations at last week's meeting, and several proposals for membership.

The per capita tax of 25 cents for the last quarter is now due. It is payable within thirty days.

Miss Annie Heaney, of the board of directors of No. 2, has resigned and Miss Katie Joyce was elected to fill the vacancy.

On the 7th inst. Grand President Miss Carrie Gallagher installed Miss Katie Joyce as a member of the board of trustees of No. 2.

The present and past officers of No. 15, Oakland, visit the different branches very often, and like No. 13, its financial condition is flattering. The Grand Officers will visit No. 15 next Friday evening.

The next Grand Council will be held in San Francisco on the 16th of June.

The Grand Board of Directors insists on the enforcement of the fine of $2 50 on each Institute that keeps its place of meeting open after 10 P. M.

No. 3 gave a reception to the officers of No. 22, of Haywards, last Monday evening at Washington Hall. A programme of literary and musical exercises was well rendered. Remarks were well made by Misses Annie Ligouri and Annie Cahill, of No. 22, Miss Rose Mahoney, of No. 1, Miss Tiny Sweeney, of No. 10, and Mrs. Julia Riding, of No. 14.

Young Men's Institute.

No. 24, Alameda, will give an excursion to Niles Canyon during May.

Institutes Nos. 6, 8 and 31 of this city have decided to give a joint excursion and picnic to the Big Trees on May 14th.

The Athletic and Social Club composed of members of Institutes Nos. 6 and 8, has reorganized. The monthly dues have been reduced from $1 to 50 cents.

No. 125, Centerville, Alameda county, has been organized by the Grand President. The following are the officers of this Institute: Manuel Pues, P.; A. J. Rodrigues, F. V. P.; Manuel Silva, S. V. P.; Frank White, R. S.; J. S. Secada, F. S.; Joseph Lewis, C. S.; John J. Santos, T.; Joseph F. King, M.; Dr. Allen, M. E.; M. Souza, I. S.; M. Auguste, O. S.; Executive Committee—Jose Amaral, Joseph Rodgers, A. Rodriguez, J. F. King and Charles Rodgers. This new Institute has a membership of twenty-five.

The Institute at North Oakland is constantly receiving accessions to its membership.

No. 47 of Alameda will give a banquet shortly after Easter at their hall on Chestnut street.

Red Men.

Tecumseh Tribe, No. 62, Oakland, on Tuesday evening decided to give an entertainment in the near future for the benefit of the tribe fund. The work in the Adoptive degree was exemplified by J. J. Bryan, P. S. of Manzanita Tribe, No. 4. The attendance at the council was very good.

On Wednesday evening Manzanita Tribe, No. 4, was visited by Fred Brandt, G. J. S.; J. O. Scott, G. S.; W. D. McDonald, P. S. of Samoset Tribe, No. 22, Vallejo; D. C. Barley, P. S. of Modoc Tribe, No. 57; O. Cutler, S. of Miantonomah Tribe, No. 9; H. S. Hutchings of Modoc Tribe, No. 57. All the visitors made interesting long talks.

Knights of Pythias.

The convention of the Grand Lodge will take place on April 14th in San Francisco.

The visit of Oakland and West Oakland Lodges to Live Oak Lodge, at its last meeting, was a pleasant affair.

Miscellaneous.

A Fraternal Guild will be established in this city soon.

Lookout Mountain Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Berkeley, will hold a camp fire on the 25th inst.

A. N. Grant, G. P., and Mrs. Dexter, P. P., paid a fraternal visit to Oakland Lodge Knights and Ladies of Honor, last Tuesday evening and were well received. The lodge was found in a very promising condition and the members determined in their efforts to make a good record this term.

A new encampment of the Companions of the Red Cross will soon be instituted at Berkeley.

Fruitvale Lodge, No. 60, Order of the Golden Shore, initiated eight candidates at its last meeting, and has ten for its next.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians of California, in convention March 9th, authorized the formation of a military company as an escort guard, to be equipped in the best possible manner, to be known as the Hibernian Guard.

The State Library

A handsomely printed and bound volume is issued from the state printing house, being the catalogue of the State Library, an institution whose existence would be unknown to the great body of the people, were it not for the fact that every once in so often, there is an investigation of the Librarian on more or less dir[illegible] liable charges, or a row over the distribution of the patronage. We learn from the catalogue that there are 77,000 volumes in the library, and a casual inspection of the catalogue shows that there are largely trash, something which might have been expected from the fact that the library has always been run by the politicians. Of course there are a great many valuable and useful books, as might have been expected where there are so many. We do not object so much to the collection of inferior works, because a library of this sort is supposed to be complete, and should contain almost everything printed in book or pamphlet form in the English language, but we do object, or might object, if the library were available for use, to the omission of standard works, many of which are wanting, as will appear from the most casual inspection of the catalogue. For instance, we notice the absence of Mill's "Examination of Sir William Hamilton's Philosophy," the most important exposition of what is known as the empirical school of metaphysics in the English language. Archbishop Trench's "English, Past and Present," a charming and delightful little book and a standard authority, is missing, and the file of the New York Tribune Almanac, a most useful and convenient book of reference, is only brought down to 1875. If time served, or it were worth while, this list might be multiplied indefinitely, but it is not worth while, because the location of the library puts it where it is only of nominal use. If such a collection of books were to be found in San Francisco, which always must be the literary center of the coast, suggestions as to its management would be in place. Buried in Sacramento, it makes little difference what it contains, or what not. We think, however, that an effort might be made, at least, to make the collection of California county histories complete. It is a strange thing that the only useful work of this sort, relating to Alameda county, Hadley's "Centennial Book," is not to be found in the library.

As for the catalogue, it will, no doubt, facilitate the use of the library. We do not know who made it, but it is obvious that he did not know his business, or he would not be found classifying under the head of fiction such works as "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," Thackeray's sketch books and social papers, and Nathaniel Hawthorne's note books. In the view of this cataloguer, it is plain, that a man who has once written a novel is forever incapacitated from telling the truth. If he had put Froude's histories in the list of fiction, he would have had much better ground for the classification.

One of the wildest stories recently evolved by the brain of a reporter was that Phil Armour, the great Chicago meat packer, had bought land at Pinole to establish a plant for wholesale butchering, or meat-packing, or the preparation and distribution of dressed beef in refrigerator cars, or for all these purposes combined, perhaps. Armour would have a healthy time competing with the big wholesale butchers of California, who own their own lands. The beef production of the State is in the hands of less than a dozen men, and the tendency is to concentration rather than diffusion. As for shipping dressed beef, one is tempted to inquire where it could be shipped to a profit outside of Oakland and San Francisco? If the purpose was to cure bacon, it would be necessary to create the hogs first, because California, not being a corn State, produces but few of them. The cogency of these reasons should have been sufficient to point out the absurdity of the story, and this view is further confirmed by investigation in Chicago, where it is stated, on the authority of Armour's manager, that there is nothing in it, so far as they are concerned.

On the Road to Hell.

The Rev. Mr. Cowan of Stockton, one of the clergymen who took the religious census of that city to which we referred yesterday, says "seven thousand six hundred and forty-five immortal souls are heading for hell from Stockton." That is the number of those who do not belong to any church in Stockton on whom the [illegible] sentence so [illegible].

[illegible] do you believe about these seven [illegible] women and children who are [illegible]? You who belong to the [illegible] churches of this city, including both Catholic and Protestants, [illegible] that you believe [illegible] who are not saved in Christ are [illegible] forever and must go down to an endless hell! You further have said that you love these 7645 people, and [illegible] who came to save them, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world. Now when you think of these professions of yours and then review your life and see how little you have done for the salvation of these people, do you not feel like a set of hypocrites? I do not wonder that the world calls us hypocrites. We are such, and ought to be ashamed of ourselves. Why, my friends, if 7645 of your neighbors and friends were being drowned in the sea this town would be wild with anxiety about them, and everything possible would be done for their salvation. Your money, your resources, your strength, and everything else could be [illegible] to be used in their rescue. Now, how shall you be aroused to save 7645 immortal souls from a burning and endless hell?

The explanation of the indifference with which the people view the awful picture drawn by Mr. Cowan, is that they do not believe it to be true, and, in fact, very few of the clergy believe it. If Mr. Cowan's belief were held by the majority they would be perfectly justified in instituting persecution for religious opinion. The doctrine expressed by Mr. Cowan is the logical foundation of religious persecution, and if it were true, would be a sufficient justification, because if it were true that men will burn eternally for religious error, it would be an act of mercy to make them suffer in this world to save them in the next. There is no escape from this conclusion, if Mr. Cowan's words are true, but, the fact is, the people no longer believe anything of the sort, and we have no doubt that ninety-nine out of every hundred Stocktonians who heard Mr. Cowan's remarks went home and ate their Sunday dinners, regarding with the utmost complacency the imaginary road to hell, which their excellent pastor told them their neighbors were traveling.

Perhaps the most remarkable bill now before Congress is that of Representative Chipman of Detroit, who wants the United States to pay a constituent of his for having found a sure remedy for the grip. This benefactor of mankind is Dr. Daniel S. Stephenson, of Detroit, who tells the committee that he has discovered the only successful remedy for "sporadic pneumonia," commonly known as "la grippe." It would be criminal, he says, to conceal so important a discovery, which would be the cause of saving so many lives. If the United States will pay him, he will reveal the secret, and he offers to come to Washington to argue his case before the committee, if his expenses are paid. Mr. Chipman has two other bills of a somewhat similar character, although not quite so absurd.

The Jessamine.

The following verses by Miss Mary Lambert of Oakland were printed in the San Francisco Monitor:

LEGEND OF THE JESSAMINE.

All through Jerusalem's scented air,
Blossoms just newly born
Sprang up fragrant everywhere,
E'en on Good Friday morn!

A host of beautiful flowers gaze
Up to the morning sun,
Unconscious that ere its setting rays,
Sorrow will blight each one!

A wrought cloud in the city fell—
Fell in a pall of fear!
The trembling earth in a [illegible]
Waited till His spirit fled!

When all was o'er and the clouds had fled—
Fled like a thunder's rain—
Each bud and blossom was crushed and dead,
Withered by fright and pain!

The cross was raised, and the Savior hung
Dying in agony,
Until his voice in a shiver rung—
Echoed o'er Calvary!

The sun in terror the world forsook,
Shocked at the Savior's cry;
The grieving earth to its centers shook,
Watching the Savior die!

But one sweet flower hid its anguished heart
Under its humid leaf,
And softly wept at each piercing dart,
Wept in a silent grief!

The sad-faced Jessamine's blossoms flew
Up to the somber light;
Its glowing petals of pinkish hue
Changed to a snowy white!

Ex-Councilman S. M. Babbitt and wife were the hosts last evening at a gathering in their house that to them brought mingled joy and sorrow—joy because their daughter Hattie was becoming the wife of an honored and estimable gentleman, and sorrow because they were losing the most precious jewel in the tiara of their home circle.

The marriage ceremony took place at 7:30 o'clock, and the many invited guests who had assembled to witness the event first feasted their eyes on the magnificent and harmonious floral designs with which the main parlor was decorated. Of presents, costly and handsome, there were also many, for the fair young bride, during her twelve years' residence in this city, has made friends by the score, who presented their congratulations. The bridegroom, E. W. Owen, resides in McHenry, Illinois, but during his visit to this city has become well and favorably known in social circles. He and his bride will be sorely missed for in a few days they will leave for his eastern home and establish themselves there permanently.

The marriage service was conducted by Rev. Dr. McLean of the First Congregational Church.

Miss Babbitt was accompanied by Ruth Eastman, and also by a bridal train of two little boys and two little girls—Grace Burnham, Nellie Davis, [illegible] B. Guslin, and Charley Burnham. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bridal party went to the dining-hall, where a sumptuous marriage feast was spread, and health, long life, and prosperity were wished the newly-united couple.

JEAN VALJEAN'S CRIME.

An Alameda Man's Theft of a Loaf of Bread.

A Reception to Rev. Mr. Van Ness and Other Notes From the City Transpontine.

James S. McCain died of heart disease yesterday at his residence, corner of Central avenue and Regent street. He was 6[illegible] years of age.

A plumber named McKay took a loaf of bread, a few mornings ago, from a store at Bay-street station, and was fined $5 for the act by Justice Holtz.

It is the intention of Supervisor D. W. Martin to leave for the interior of the county in a few days to inspect the construction of some of the new bridges recently ordered by the Board of Supervisors.

The following have been elected to fill the vacancies in Alameda Parlor, No. 47, Native Sons of the Golden West: First Vice-President, Thomas Hennessey; Second Vice President, Louis Fisher; Third Vice-President, Martin Owens.

The Alameda Boat Club now holds meetings every Tuesday evening. The membership is quite large and is constantly increasing. Work upon the new house, at the foot of Chestnut street, will be commenced next week.

A woman named Mrs. Rausch, residing on Railroad avenue, near Webster street, went on a tear a few days ago and endeavored to clean out the barroom of Riley's Hotel, on Webster street. She was arrested for disturbing the peace.

Four members of the Executive Committee of the Alameda Improvement Association—Messrs. George H. Price, D. Hirshfeld, Columbus Bartlett, and [illegible] McLean—were present at the meeting last evening. No business of importance was transacted.

The ladies of the Unitarian church will give a reception to-morrow evening to Rev. Mr. Van Ness at the residence of Mr. Browning on Grand street, near Railroad avenue. Rev. Mr. Van Ness recently came to this State from Colorado, and for some time to come will hold services every Sunday morning at Masonic Hall.

An ordinance has been adopted by the City Trustees, which has for its object the preservation of the improved streets. It provides that in all cases where any portion of an improved street is to be disturbed for the laying of pipes or otherwise, a deposit of $10 per each thirty feet so disturbed shall be made with the City Clerk, as a guarantee that the earth shall be properly replaced and thoroughly tamped. The work shall be done under the direction of the Street Superintendent, and to his satisfaction.

A Wild Goose Chase.

In connection with the visit of the representative of Thomas Platt to the Health Office on Tuesday evening, for records of his uncle's death, and the story he related about his intention of creating a sensation in regard to the millionaire's property, it appears, on investigation in San Francisco, that his efforts are not likely to result satisfactorily to himself. It has been ascertained that when Platt died he left only $2,500 or $3,000, but as far as the disposition of it was concerned, a nephew would not have much chance, as the deceased man left two sons and a daughter.

A Carpenter Hurt.

W. A. Wagner, a carpenter living at San Jose, was brought to Dr. Woolsey's Hospital at ten o'clock last night suffering from a severe scalp wound and internal injuries caused by a fall from a scaffolding in a tunnel at Wright's station on the narrow gauge line. The injuries were dressed by Doctors Taylor and Dunn of the hospital staff, and today the man is resting much easier.

The Western Venice.

A telegram from Alvarado about the unheeded rain of Tuesday announces that the precipitation greatly interfered with the work of the farmers and orchard men.

Davie at The Well.

At the corner of Tenth and Washington streets, just this side of the new brick building, Mr. J. L. Davie has placed a force pump and a granite dipper for the accommodation of the public. This pump forces clear, pure, fresh water from an artesian well, which is a God-send to the thirsty people of Oakland.

This is the first liberal contribution of its kind here in the city. Mr. Davie noticed on several occasions some of the laboring men on their return home, stop and drink heavily instead of going a few paces further to the saloon. Mr. Davie says this alone has paid him for the trouble and expense.

Perils of the Lake.

Dr. Woolsey's steam launch parted a wire cable in the heavy gale Tuesday morning. The boat was taken in tow, however, before it had drifted on the storm beaten coast of Adams point.

WHY COUGH,
WHEN a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will relieve you? Try it. Keep it in the house. You are liable to have a cough at any time, and no other remedy is so effective as this world-renowned preparation. No household with young children should be without it. Scores of lives are saved every year by its timely use.

Amanda B. Jenner, Northampton, Mass., writes: "Common gratitude impels me to acknowledge the great benefits I have derived for my children from the use of Ayer's most excellent Cherry Pectoral. I had lost two dear children from croup and consumption, and had the greatest fear of losing my only remaining daughter and son, as they were delicate. Happily, I find that by giving them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the first symptoms of throat or lung trouble, they are relieved from danger, and are becoming robust, healthy children."

"In the winter of 1885 I took a bad cold which, in spite of every known remedy, grew worse, so that the family physician considered me incurable, supposing me to be in consumption. As a last resort I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, in a short time, the cure was complete. Since then I have never been without this medicine. I am fifty years of age, weigh over 180 pounds, and attribute my good health to the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—G. W. Youker, Salem, N. J.

"Last winter I contracted a severe cold, which by repeated exposure, became quite obstinate. I was much troubled with hoarseness and bronchial irritation. After trying various medicines, without relief, I at last purchased a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. On taking this medicine, my cough ceased almost immediately, and I have been well ever since."—Rev. Thos. B. Russell, Secretary Holston Conference and P. E. of the Greenville District, M. E. C., Jonesboro, Tenn.

FENCING IN THE SEA.

Enclosing Overflowed Land in the Estuary's Northern Arm.

Travelers on the local train between Oakland and East Oakland have recently noticed the building of a zig-zag fence, projecting out into the water or land from the eastern shore of the northern arm of the estuary, between the First street and the Seventh street railroad bridges. Much speculation is always indulged in whenever any one puts up a few posts and tacks to them a string of fence-boards in that much disputed demesne lying along the East Oakland front. It is known that E. C. Sessions has obtained title to all the marsh land south of Clinton station, which is now being filled in by the dredger. He intends to dispose of the made land to manufacturers who want sites contiguous to railroads and tide water. But the fences now being erected are believed to be another step to obtain a complete title to overflowed lands, under the patents held by ex-Surveyor General James T. Stratton of East Oakland.

FROM SUNNY ITALY.

Five Garbage Dumpers Brought to Court.

The three Italians who were brought into court this morning on a charge of violating an ordinance, by dumping garbage where not permitted, scarcely looked like the fine, poetic sons of song, that Ouida paints as the representatives of their race, appearing in fact as if they had passed the night in the dirt heaps that they are engaged in forming throughout the day. Police Clerk O'Brien called off their names with an accentuated ring acquired by long practice in the "Latin" districts of San Francisco and Sacramento, and Justice Henshaw also displayed a fine knowledge of the language, calling the interpreter "cavallero," and explaining the names to Bailiff Mitchell, who never ate an olive in his life. Nicholas Bagi, Vincenzo Vincente, and Nicolini Stagnaro, were the individuals arraigned, and the hearing of their cases was continued respectively to the 20th, the 21st, and the 25th instant.

STORIES BY PRINTERS.

Lying Jim Townsend and Some of His Great Whoppers.

Seattle Press

Last evening some old time California types began telling stories of pioneer days on the Pacific coast, when one of them called up a couple of reminiscences of "Lying" Jim Townsend, an old and widely known printer and newspaper publisher of California. 'Twas he and Harry Waite who founded the Antioch Ledger. Jim Townsend was the author of the story of how a tunnel, being run through a too shallow hill, was built on stilts, which story Mark Twain afterwards made famous by putting it in his book, "Roughing It."

"I accomplished the greatest feat known in maritime history," said Lying Jim, according to his biographer of last evening, "an' this is how I did it. One time I went to Honolulu as the guest of a captain who had the misfortune to die while out at sea. He was buried, and the crew held an election, and the honors of captain fell on my devoted head. Now, this vessel had a cargo of eggs. Eggs were in the hold, eggs were on the decks, and eggs were piled up around the mast. Eggs were everywhere. Well, sir, my great feat consisted of sailing that vessel, full of eggs, over a thousand miles on the Pacific ocean and landing it at the wharf in Honolulu and never breaking an egg shell."

"Then we sailed from there," continued this veteran hobnobber of the truth, "to Acapulco, and all went well enough until we began to hoist all ready to depart, when some custom officers came out in a round-shaped sort of a boat to collect from us the usual blood money demanded from all foreign captains in those days. I determined to resist them, and hunted around for some means of defense. We had an old blunderbuss of a cannon and plenty of powder, but we couldn't find any shell or shot. Finally an idea struck me. I grabbed up a big, old-fashioned jack-plane lying near the galley and pointed it into the old cannon. I aimed the thing myself, and let her go. Well, sir, the result was marvelous, even to me. The jack-plane struck the ship's rail near the bow, and started in to shave around and around at a wonderful rate of speed, generated by the big charge of powder I had rammed in to the cannon. The plane kept on in its rapid course around that customs boat, and the poor ignorant officers and sailors on board didn't have sense enough to stop it. They all knelt down on the deck and began to pray, thinking the sight before them was the work of the devil sure. The jack-plane kept right on, until a shaving five miles long was floating out to sea, and soon the water's edge was reached, and down went the boat. Every one of them blamed greaser customs officers were drowned, and we sailed home."

San Leandro.

John F. Hooper is about ready for business at his new location in the old Sweepstakes buildings.

Mr. Warren has sold three acres of his property on the San Lorenzo road to Mr. Card, an Eastern gentleman. He will commence the erection of a cottage the beginning of next week.

The Ladies' Society of the Presbyterian church held a meeting at the residence of Mrs. G. Dowrie on Wednesday afternoon. A large number was present and the usual enjoyable time was spent by all.

Albert Hansen, formerly one of the proprietors of the San Leandro Hotel, returned from a five months' visit to his home in Denmark, bringing with him a handsome wife, married in Fryen, near Copenhagen. He is in good health and well pleased with his trip. He will soon go to Benicia, where he expects to manage a hotel.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the lecture that was to be delivered in the Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday evening, by Dr. Bentley, on "The Ancient Universities of Great Britain," was postponed indefinitely. Another evening will be set for its delivery, and a public announcement made. The admission to the lecture will be twenty-five cents, and the proceeds are to go to the Improvement Fund. Dr. Bentley is a scholarly, cultured man, and a pleasant speaker, and he will undoubtedly have a large audience to hear him.

The Town Trustees held an adjourned meeting on Tuesday evening. There were present Trustees B. C. Hawes, A. B. Carey, J. M. Estudillo and B. D. Gray; absent, Trustee M. F. Garcia. The resolution introduced at the last meeting to appropriate for the use of Union Hose Company for the year, $285, was passed by the affirmative votes of all present. A petition from property-owners along Estabrook street for curbing was referred to the Committee on Streets. After a full discussion of the resolution to move the town calaboose, it was decided not to move it, as the difference in locality would be only twenty-five feet. The board then adjourned. The Trustees informally talked over the matter of organizing the town government under the general law, and the matter will be brought before the board officially at the next meeting.

THE UNIVERSITY.

A Resolution of the Regents Stirs Up the President.

The lawns about College avenue are mowing preparatory to Charter Day.

Class doubles for the University championship will be played on the afternoon of April 5th.

An examining oculist is on hand every Monday afternoon in Dr. Payne's office in the gymnasium.

It has been stated on trustworthy authority that President Davis will surely resign in case the Regents pass the resolution making it necessary for all the faculty to live at Berkeley.

The question of organizing a class in elocution under the instruction of Mr. Armstrong of Oakland is agitated by the students. Professor Gayley is much interested in the scheme.

Charter Day will be observed Saturday. The morning exercises will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The various fraternities will keep open house and entertain their friends at lunch. Dancing in the gymnasium will be in order after 2:30 P. M. No one will be admitted to the afternoon dance without a check.

The Juniors have never recovered from their defeat at the hands of the Freshies at baseball, and have issued the following manifesto:

In order to keep up interest in baseball and to stir up [illegible] for members of the [illegible] baseball team, etc., and to bring out [illegible] at our college and [illegible] from [illegible] [illegible], the [illegible] of the Junior class hereby challenge the Freshman team to a series of three [illegible], weather permitting, [illegible] Wednesday, March 26, 1890, and [illegible] Wednesdays. The result, of course, will not affect the present championship.

"He's Oft Been There Before."

The authorities have been looking up the record of James Murphy who was yesterday sentenced to seventy-five days in the city prison for battery on Officer Hodgkins. He proves to be an old jail bird, his portrait appearing in the rogues' photograph album under the number 679. In August, 1875, he was sent back to a term from San Joaquin county for felony embezzlement, and on June 8, 1878, he was held in Oakland for robbery, and was on February 24 sent for the offense to San Quentin for three and one-half years.

THE TRIBUNE is the only Oakland paper that contains the complete and direct Associated Press report of Western, foreign, and coast news.

The Queen and the Count.

It is telegraphed that Queen Victoria is about to start for Hamburg on account of severe attacks of rheumatism. However it is believed she has other motives for going to that place as it is said Count Henry Schellhaas has a grand display of Household furniture on exhibition and the Queen wants to purchase some of this noted man's wares. His store is at the corner of Eleventh and Franklin streets, in this city

Bellamy

In his famous work, "Looking Backward," describes how people in the year 2000 do without the use of money, but at present we feel the need of it quite often and sometimes so pressing that we can not possibly wait until we have learned to do without it. If you should find yourself in such a position, it would be well to remember that for the last seventeen years the Oakland Loan Office has been filling this long felt want in thousands of cases to the entire satisfaction of their patrons and we can recommend all in search of a reliable place to visit the Oakland Loan Office, 1162 Broadway, near 14th street.

And you will see his tail, but why talk of him when you can talk of Schellhaas' bargains, in parlor, bed and dining room furniture, if you ever saw or heard of low prices, you should come and see us at 408 Eleventh street.

A PASTOR'S RESIGNATION.

The Sensible Government of the San Lorenzo Union Church.

About two years ago the Rev G. B. Allen moved his family to East Oakland that his sons might avail themselves of the superior educational advantages afforded to a resident of this city. One son entered the State University, class '92; one the senior class of the High school, and is now in the University class '92; another in the Franklin school, who expects to enter the High school next year; another is a student in the Dental College, San Francisco.

Mr. Allen has officiated most of the time since he came to this city in Union church, San Lorenzo. The people having expressed a desire to have their pastor reside among them, and as he could not do so and provide a home for his sons, he decided to hand in his resignation, to take effect on the 1st of July next. It is his intention to supply vacant pulpits during the next three years.

Mr. Allen says that any clergyman who wants a delightful rural parish, among a kind and intelligent people, will find it in San Lorenzo. There is a very comfortable parsonage near the church edifice, which is a pretty gothic structure, nicely furnished, and has a good bell and a small, but excellent-toned pipe organ.

The property, the financial and other secular interests are under the exclusive control of the society, which is known by its corporate name, "Christian Union." The spiritual interests and arrangements connected with religious worship and other religious services, are under the exclusive control of the church, which is an undenominational organization, which admits to its membership "any person who will publicly profess faith in the Bible as containing a revelation from God to mankind; faith in Christ as the Savior of the human race; and who will promise, by divine help, to live the precepts which He inculcated, and to conform to the rules and discipline of the Church, which are in accordance with the plain teachings of the New Testament."

Section 4 of article VII, of the by laws, reads: "The intention of the original members of this Society being to provide a place of worship and provide religious services in which all denominations of Christians might unite in worship and Christian work, therefore, the minister who is settled as pastor, or who may supply the pulpit, is enjoined not to condemn at the regular services on Sunday the doctrines or polity of any Christian denomination, or speak for or against any political party. But he shall not be proscribed in his liberty to express his opinions respecting any religious doctrine, or any portion of the Bible, or in presenting his views on any moral, political, or educational topic."

The church was dedicated in 1875, and the society has been in a prosperous condition ever since. The Sunday school numbers over 100. There is an efficient Christian Endeavor Society which is doing good work among the young people of that vicinity. There is no other church or Sunday school within nearly three miles, San Leandro on the north, Haywards on the east and Mount Eden on the south, are each about three miles distant. It is also located in the midst of a large and rich fruit section. Most of the residents own their homes and have an annual income which enables them to have all the comforts of the city while residing in the country. Mr. Allen also says that most of those who labor for wages are Portuguese, who have a settlement by themselves. They own their neat cottages and the land on which they are built. They are industrious laborers and law-abiding citizens.

NATIONALISM AND WATER.

Bellamy's Followers on Reservoirs and Artesian Wells.

At the meeting of Nationalists at Grand Army Hall last night the water question came up for further discussion. The Glee Club sang a melody composed and written by A. M. Salyer, of which a fair sample verse is as follows:

We are the people. Hear these resolutions.
Defy us, vile Council, and six executions
Take place in our minds—but we take our ablutions
In potable, Irishy algel solutions.
What do you say?

E. C. Fleming, the man with a filter and a cockney accent, reviewed the water fight, extolled Dr. George C. Pardee, took a shy at Colonel John P. Irish, and favored an artesian well supply.

Dr. C. C. Lane favored city ownership of the water supply system, and expressed satisfaction that, as he said, the present agitation had caused the stock of the Contra Costa Company to decrease in value 20 per cent in the last month. He thought that the Committee of One Hundred would be able to oust the Council, and that then it could turn its attention to the water company and force the forfeiture of its charter. He said that if the charter of the company were taken away its plant would not be worth $1,500,000, and that then it could be purchased by the city for use as a flushing reservoir. He contrasted the assessed value of the company's property with the value stated by the company to the Council. His general idea was that the Committee of One Hundred should provide water works, and turn them over to the city upon the election of a satisfactory Council.

An invitation was accepted from the Alameda Nationalist Club, to attend a meeting at the Park Opera House on Saturday evening, and the following were chosen as delegates to the Nationalist Convention, to be held in San Francisco on the 8th and 9th of April: Mrs. Smythe, Miss Harriet Stevens, Mrs. Steele, Eugene Hough, H. C. Hinds, and Mr. Kelsey.

TWENTY-THIRD AVENUE.

A Fine View of a Thriving Part of the City.

Jeffress & White, the Twenty-third avenue real estate dealers, have issued a handsome lithographic birds-eye view of the entire eastern section of the city, including Twenty-third avenue and its tributaries, Fruit Vale and Highland Park. The prominent buildings shown on the map are the California Cotton Mills, the California Pottery and Terra Cotta Works, the Garfield School, the California College, the Centennial Presbyterian Church, and several fine residences surrounded by beautiful gardens and lawns. By their map, Messrs. Jeffress & White have issued something that will benefit the entire section, and they deserve much credit for their enterprise.

A Fall From a Wagon.

Peter Cahill, while returning home with the assistance of some friends, Monday evening, fell from his wagon, near the Piedmont car stables, and broke his leg. He was taken to the Fabiola Hospital for treatment.

New Sunday School Rooms.

It has been decided to postpone the opening of the new Sunday school rooms of the First Methodist Church until April 13th. The services will last all day.

A RUSSIAN PRINCESS.

A Distinguished Visitor From the Land of the Tsars.

The Princess Engalitcheff of Russia, who is visiting this country to learn of American manners and people for herself, has recently arrived in San Francisco, and the people of Oakland are soon to have the opportunity of hearing two of her charming lectures, one to be given for the benefit of the free kindergarten, and the other for the benefit of the Fabiola Hospital. The first will occur on Thursday of next week in Hamilton Hall, and the other in the Congregational church on March 31st. The New York Tribune says of her:

"The Princess has the ease and grace of manner that betoken the woman of high and noble birth. She has that dignity, combined with grace, which is born of a life spent in circles where the smallest details of training are strenuously insisted on. Her family is one of the oldest in the Empire, and is recorded in the three books which trace Russian ancestry to the foundation of the State. Her husband, who was a distinguished soldier and diplomat, died a number of years ago, and her only son is now in the military school of St. Petersburg, and will soon enter the army. The Princess has been a great favorite, not only in the society of the Russian capital, but also in Paris."

The Record and Guide of New York prints: "The Princess Narethe Engalitcheff is one of the most interesting persons who has appeared on the literary-social swim for some winters. In a half-hour's conversation with her, the writer found her to be an unusually intelligent woman, with grace, tact, and a keen perception. Her sister married Sir William White, the British Ambassador at Constantinople, who is the foremost Oriental diplomat in the British service, and who, with Lord Dufferin and a few others, enjoys the distinction of being in the front rank of British diplomacy."

The Boston Commonwealth writes: "A very unique incident of this winter's pleasures was found in the readings of the Princess Engalitcheff. The distinguished foreigner, in addition to being a Russian aristocrat of the highest circle, is a most accomplished, agreeable, and beautiful woman. Socially she has been the lion of the season. But an equal enjoyment was discovered in her accurate knowledge and clever expression of Russian life. Her papers have fully justified the large audiences that have listened to them, and have constituted a very considerable share of the enjoyments of the winter. The Princess was introduced to New York society by Baron Rosen of the Russian legation, and by Charles Nordoff, the well-known author. Her readings in New York and Brooklyn were under the patronage of some of the leading ladies of those cities, and she was introduced to her audience by Mrs. George W. Field.

Thefts From the San Francisco Post Office.

James S. Kennedy Jr., who for the past eight years has been foreign money order clerk at the San Francisco postoffice, was taken into custody last night by Postoffice Inspector Seybolt, charged with felony-embezzlement. His shortage is said to amount to over $20,000. When searched in Marshal Frank's office, at the Appraisers' Building, Kennedy had over $4000 sewed in the lining of his trowsers, partly in gold and partly in greenbacks, which leads to the belief that he was preparing to leave the city.

The money was stolen by failing to enter orders on the records in the office, and the check kept on orders in New York shows 698 orders missing.

Kennedy has resided with his father in San Francisco, and the latter is nearly broken-hearted at his son's defalcation.

Affectionate Steamers.

The steamer St. Paul was hauled to San Francisco yesterday from Oakland creek in tow of the tug Ida W. She was making for Mission street wharf, No. 1, and, while going in, collided with the Government steamer General McDowell.

A party of Oakland sports have matched Gus Brown and Joe Henlen to fight for a purse of $600, the loser to take $200. The fight will take place in Oakland, April 2d.

For Throat Diseases, Coughs, Colds, etc., effectual relief is found in the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Price 25 cts. Sold only in boxes.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

IF YOU HAVE
no appetite, Indigestion, Flatulence, Sick Headache, "all run down," losing flesh, you will find
Tutt's Pills

GO UP, LIGHTHEADS!

A Few Believers in the Ericksonian Deluge Selling Out.

George Erickson's prophecy has had some effect in this city, and it is quite probable that forty or fifty people, largely Danes and Swedes, will find it convenient to be absent from the city April 7th and 14th. Harry Gordon of the Home Insurance Company reports that his cook, and a very good cook she is, too, has determined to go to Fresno just by way of precaution. A lady in Berkeley was with some difficulty persuaded to reinsure her house for another year, as she felt reasonably sure it wouldn't need any insurance after the cataclysm.

A street-car driver reports that he purchased for $25 the furniture of nine rooms in a house near the corner of Fifteenth and Market streets, and an East Oakland colored man is said to have offered a $9500 home for $6500. Most of the believers, however, will cling to their worldly possessions and take chances.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

Henderson, Tex., Aug. 23, 1889.—"For eighteen months I had an eating sore on my tongue. I was treated by the best local physicians, but obtained no relief, the sore gradually growing worse. IN INTEREST OF LABORERS.

Why the Governor Declines to Make Labor Day a Legal Holiday.

In reply to a letter on the subject of declaring another legal holiday to the already large list in California, the Governor has sent the following letter:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, March 19, 1890.

J. W. Sweeney, Corresponding Secretary Pacific Coast Eight Hour League—DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 18th inst., relative to appointing May 1st of the present year a legal holiday, in order that the Eight Hour League may have a street parade on that day, has been received. I most respectfully decline to comply with the request. My sympathies always have been and are now strongly with the laboring classes, my payroll in support of labor averaging for many years upward of $120,000 each year. It must be borne in mind that the business interests, from which labor draws its support, are entitled to consideration also, and to check the entire business operations of the State in order that a single organization may make a public demonstration is not business.

This has been a very severe and burdensome year on all classes. It has been an exceptional year in its distress and destitution, and at this writing the liberally disposed in San Francisco are donating large sums of money in order to give employment to those who are not only in need, but on the verge of starvation. These sums come directly from the business men of San Francisco, evincing their great interest in labor and furnishing them with additional support if any were needed. In the position I find it incumbent on me to take in this matter, in the interest of the laboring classes, without desiring to be instructive by my suggestion in connection with this proposition, as the parade will be associated with great expense, which must necessarily be drawn from the laboring classes, would it not be better and more beneficial to donate the amount involved to the unemployed of San Francisco? Yours truly,

R. W. WATERMAN.

Sec. 3839 of the Political Code reads as follows:

Every male inhabitant of the State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers, insane persons and Indians, not taxed, must annually pay a Poll Tax of two dollars; provided, the same be paid between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in July, then it shall be three dollars.

Sec. 3840 of the Political Code makes it the duty of the Assessor to demand the Poll Tax of every person liable thereto, and on the neglect or refusal of such person to pay he must collect by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by such person.

Under sections 426 to 431 every person who refuses to give his own name, or the name of any person in his employ, or who in any manner obstructs the assessor or any of his deputies in the collection of the State Poll Tax, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail or both such fine and imprisonment.

Only those persons under twenty-one or over sixty years of age are exempt. Poll Tax must be paid on demand.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

Officer Hodgkins Arrests Walter Earl, of Kissing Fame.

In October, 1888, a warrant was issued out against Walter Earl, of Sixth street, for an assault with a deadly weapon, and Officer Hodgkins was sent to serve it. He found his man and arrested him, but before going to the station Earl begged to be allowed to say goodbye to his wife, and the good-natured officer assented. His prisoner then went into a room with the announced desire of kissing his wife, shutting the door in the face of Hodgkins, who waited patiently outside a minute or so. As, however, there were no signs of the osculation being concluded he knocked at the door, and receiving no answer, opened it, to find that the bird had flown. A hot search was made for Earl at the time, and at intervals subsequently, but, although he remained in this district, he contrived to elude arrest.

Officer Hodgkins naturally felt somewhat nettled at the occurrence, and has ever since been on the track of Earl in a quiet way, nearly running him to earth on several occasions. This morning he was triumphant. He had ascertained that Earl was in San Francisco, so he went across the bay, and, sure enough, located and got the drop on his man. The prisoner was not given much chance to escape this time, and he was landed safely in the City Hall jail. Officer Hodgkins says that his heart is never again going to be worked by any one who wants to do any kissing after he is arrested.

SHE WAS NOT DAMAGED.

Mrs. Boyenval Cannot Recover From Her Neighbor Rowe.

The trial of the case of Harriet Boyenval against R. D. Rowe, to recover $10,000 damages for malicious prosecution, was concluded this afternoon. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. Mr. Rowe threw a stone at Mrs. Boyenval's yellow dog, and the latter spoke disrespectfully of Rowe for his conduct, and she was arrested for disturbing the peace and subsequently acquitted. Rowe had to pay the jury fees, amounting to $108.

WHO HELD THE PISTOL?

The Detectives Investigate the Shooting at Mr. MacDonald's House.

Detectives Shorey and Holland went out yesterday evening to investigate the shooting at the house of Mr. MacDonald, the details of which were reported exclusively in yesterday's TRIBUNE. They discovered evidence that five shots in all were fired, for, in addition to the two bullets that found their way into the bedroom and the one imbedded in the window sash, a pellet was found in the side of the building, and a hole through a street lamp near by showed that a missile had also been sent through it.

No clue was obtained to the mysterious firing. It is strange that more information could not be obtained, for a party was given at the residence of Mr. Boice, not far away, and twenty or thirty of its male guests left the house about the time that the shooting occurred. Why the bedroom of Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald should be selected as a target is unexplained, and apparently inexplicable.

AGAINST TRAVERS.

The Decision in the Pilot Commissioner Suit.

The Supreme Court today handed down the decision in the case of The People ex rel Travers against A. C. Freese, an action to oust Freese from the office of Pilot Commissioner and to declare the relator, Captain Travers, of this city entitled to the office. The decision is in favor of Freese, and hence, Captain Travers will not take a seat on the Commission.

A Member of Congress Spanked.

New York Tribune

A curious story is told at the capitol at the expense of a member of Congress, who, while of no small caliber intellectually, has not been blessed with an abundance of avoirdupois. He has a wife who is much taller than he, and who is also well known to her children as a strict disciplinarian. One evening, as the story goes, she heard a noise in the nursery after bedtime. She promptly seized her slipper and started for the scene of the uproar. Just as she reached the door the children extinguished the light. Stretching out her hands she captured one of the boys, and, to judge from the outcries he made, the spanking was thoroughly effective. But the mother was somewhat surprised at the conduct of the second sufferer. Instead of sobbing he yelled protestations in a strong voice, and at last swore roundly. The mother, astonished, jumped up, and, letting him fall from her knee to the floor, exclaimed tenderly:

"Is that you, hubby?"

Overwhelmed with confusion, he admitted that it was her "hubby" she had been spanking. After they had retired, amid the muffled laughter of the children, who were trying to restrain it by stuffing pillows in their mouths, explanations followed. He, too, had heard the noise, and, with the same object in view as his wife, had gone to the nursery, where he had been caught by his spouse.

Hereafter he vows that he will allow his wife to discipline the children unaided.

William Herman Dying.

Police Clerk O'Brien was summoned, at midnight, to draw up a will for William Hermon, who has been residing here for the past twenty-five years, and who is now lying at the point of death from congestion of the brain. He was unconscious when Mr. O'Brion arrived there, and remained in a stupor for over an hour, when he revived enough to direct the provisions of the will, but could not sign it.

A Joy For Eve.

Ask yourselves this question? Does it pay in the long run to buy a cheap grade of piano? So many poor and cheaply gotten up, so called pianos are sold, that really people do not know what to buy. But few know the real merit of a good piano, and customers are bewildered by the plausible stories of agents; and many are talked into buying a piano which in a few years is worn out. Be not deceived by fabulous low prices. A good piano like a good buggy, furniture, houses, made of the best material and by skillful mechanics brings a better price than shoddy cheap goods.

The Steinway & Sons' pianos are the best; after they have been used for 20 years, bring yet a better prize than cheap new ones. The Steinway piano costs more than any other piano, it is worth more and no one can deny this. The Wheelock piano is another piano which gives the best of satisfaction, hundreds in Oakland who use these for years will testify to their durability, sweetness of tone and general satisfaction. F. R. Girard, is sole agent for those two best pianos now in market. He employs no agents who go from house to house. Beware of such smooth talking fellows. Go and examine the large stock of those fine pianos, at Girard's piano house, Broadway between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, Oakland.

ILLEGALLY ANNEXED.

That is What the Courts may Decide in the Adams Suit.

Vernon Heights has been illegally annexed! The city of Oakland is not entitled to the territory recently taken within her bounds and the city tax collectors will have to refund the thousands of dollars collected from the people in that territory. If this is the decision to be rendered by the courts in the suit of Edson Adams against the city, the city of Oakland will be retarded in its growth and the councilman who was to be at large in that district will never roam through the corridors of Oakland's municipal building. There will then be only one way to get that territory annexed to Oakland, and that is, to have it brought in by the Peoples Express and Transfer Company which checks baggage to all parts of the United States from your residence, besides doing a general express business. Telephone 326. Office 423 Tenth street.

A Scandal Prevented.

One of our citizens returning home from his club in a rather hilarious state, was put to bed by his spouse, who on examining his clothes found two long hairs on the shoulder of his coat. She waited until morning and consulted that expert on hair, Mrs. L. S. Silberberg of the Eastern hair store 405 Twelfth street, between Broadway and Franklin and had the hair put to a microscopeic test, which proved conclusively that it was her own hair. She was so delighted with the result, that she had Mrs. Silberberg trim, shampoo and dress her hair and went away in a much happier frame of mind.
